

Sherman H. Burke and Adilad Brooks.
Henry Schultz of Laurel Springs, N. J., and Ida Schuler of this city.
Clarence M. Milles and Daisy Carter. Robert A. Jarboe of Ithaca, N. Y. and Edith McKee of this city.
Irving W. Windsor of Silver Spring, Md., and Marion Windsor of Ritchie, Md.
John F. Brennan and Agnes G. G. McDemough.
Elihu A. Bacon and Clara F. Taylor.
David P. Molony and Louise N. Milton.
Harry E. Rochell and Lena Chicago. John N. Seitz and Florence H. Edwards.

One of the most impressive of all the services was that held at St. Patrick's Catholic Church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. So dense was the crowd there, augmented by 300 persons from other cities, that it was difficult to conduct the church's professional. The collection for the collection was $100.00. The collection was met with unusually large gifts from those present.

Rev. Einar Wilfey presided his sixth annual conference at the St. Patrick's Vermont Avenue Christian Church last night, in the course of which he gave readings from the poet's plays.

Ernest Dickman Is Buried Here
Ernest Dickman, formerly a lieutenant commander in the navy, and United States minister to Colombia died in New York last Thursday. His body was brought to this city yesterday in the Arlington national cemetery. Commander Dickman was a graduate of the Naval Academy and served on the staff of Admiral Dugan during the civil war. Subsequently he commanded the small gunboat Albatross during the Spanish war, and was detailed to protect the rights of American fishermen on the coasts of Newfoundland and Nova Scotia in the seventies.

Before a special board of inquiry imbricated the Austrians with his father and two brothers, and that after having been slightly wounded twice he determined to flee his country and find a refuge in the United States. The board decided that he must be deported as liable to become a public charge, and he was sent to New York City, where he met Washington to whom he appealed now have confirmed the decision.

Washington, New York with thirty-two others who are to be deported for various causes.

near the old Dyckman mansion is soon to be turned over to the historical park. The site is occupied first by Americans and by the British and Hessians. It was composed in part of a wood in three rows and contained relics, including English muskets, brass and ash-iron and broken china. Buttoned buckles of the 17th Leicester buckles, 14th Buckinghamshire buckles, 23rd Gloucester buckles, Black Watch regiments and killing regiment were found. The historical park is to be reconstructed.

ance. The company carried an insurance of $211,000 on the contents of the building and $250,000 on the building.

Two Other Fires.

A small fire occurred in the house of Donald B. MacLeod, 1813 Ontario place, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning. No. 21 engine company responded to a call for assistance and the fire was quickly extinguished. Only about $50 damage resulted.

Fire in the chimney of the house of Irving L. Hunt, 1872 California street, last night about 7 o'clock claimed the attention of the fire department. The fire did no damage.

Coast Wants Lower Rates East.
Downward revision of freight rates on sash, doors and their lumber product from the Pacific coast to eastern Canada, New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and West Virginia were sought today from the interstate commerce commission by manufacturers in California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. The petitioners complain that rates were advanced last October from 1 to 22 per cent, and seek to recover excess already paid.